

MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

1. PARTIES. This Agreement is between the Air Transport Association of America, Inc. (“ATA”), a District of Columbia corporation, with its principal place of business at 1301 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20004-1707, and

_____, a

_____, which has its principal place of business at

_____.

2. PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT. This Agreement describes the terms under which the Participant will participate in the ATA E-Business Program (“the E-Business Program”) to develop electronic information exchange specifications for use in the aviation industry. Any specifications that are developed through the E-Business Program are ATA’s exclusive property. A primary objective of the E-Business Program is the publication of such specifications. This Agreement does not provide the Participant the right to participate in any other ATA membership, specification development, issuance or publication program.

3. MEMBERSHIP

- a. Eligibility. An entity or individual that provides aviation-related civil or military products or services is eligible for membership in the E-Business Program.
- b. Affiliate membership. An entity that is an Affiliate of a Participant and is otherwise eligible for membership can be a Participant.
- c. Membership duration. Membership shall be annual, shall be computed based upon the effective date described in section 9.a of this Agreement, and shall be annually automatically renewed unless the Participant notifies ATA before its membership anniversary date that it does not want the Agreement to be renewed. Section 3.g contains additional annual membership renewal notice and invoice payment requirements.
- d. Non-transferability of Agreement. This Agreement cannot be transferred or assigned without ATA’s prior written or electronic approval.
- e. Designation of Primary Contact. The Participant shall designate a full-time employee of the Participant as its Primary Contact. The Primary Contact shall be the person through whom ATA formally communicates with the Participant about E-Business Program matters.
- f. Annual fee payments. The Participant shall pay the annual membership fee described in Attachment A (at the time of this Agreement entitled “ATA E-Business Program Cost Sheet”). ATA may revise the fee from time to time and revise Attachment A accordingly. However, the membership fee of a current Participant shall not change until its next annual membership renewal.
- g. Termination of membership
 - i. ATA shall transmit to the Participant an annual membership renewal notice and invoice at least 90 days before its annual renewal date. Membership is subject to termination if the Participant fails to pay its annual membership fee within 7 days of the Participant’s annual renewal date.
 - ii. The Participant may voluntarily terminate membership by providing written or electronic notice to ATA. Such termination shall be effective on the date that ATA receives the notice or such later date that the Participant specifies in its notice.
 - iii. ATA may terminate the Participant’s membership if ATA (A) informs the Participant of its substantial failure to comply with a term or terms of this

- Agreement and (B) the Participant has not cured that non-compliance within 15 days of the date of that notice.
- iv. ATA may terminate the E-Business Program and this Agreement by providing all then-current Participants 60 days advance notice. In the event of such a termination by ATA, the Participant shall be entitled to receive those final publications that are published under this Agreement before the termination date of the E-Business Program.
 - v. Termination, irrespective of the reason, shall not entitle the Participant to a refund of any portion of the annual fee that it has paid.
- 4. OPERATING GUIDELINES. The document entitled “ATA E-Business Program Organizational Structure and Operating Guidelines” (“the Guidelines”) is incorporated into and made part of this Agreement. The Guidelines may be revised from time to time. The ATA E-Business Steering Group (“the Group”) shall be responsible for approving revisions to the Guidelines. ATA shall promptly communicate to the Participant any revision that the Group approves (“an approved revision”). An approved revision shall amend this Agreement 30 days after the Group approves it.
- 5. VOLUNTARY NATURE OF SPECIFICATIONS. The use of any specification that is developed in the E-Business Program is voluntary and each Participant shall individually determine whether it will use such a specification.
- 6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS
- a. Contributions to E-Business Program activities
 - i. The Participant agrees that any data elements, specifications, protocol components, concepts, or other information or material that it provides, or authorizes to be provided, for the development of specifications under this Agreement, to any E-Business Program committee, working group, Participant or otherwise to ATA and which is included in a draft or final specification (“Participant Information”) may be incorporated into a specification that ATA develops, maintains or publishes and shall be immediately available for ATA’s use for purposes consistent with this Agreement.
 - ii. The Participant grants to ATA a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, worldwide copyright license, with the right to sublicense, to use, copy, modify, distribute (including, but not limited to, the sale thereof), disclose and otherwise exploit for purposes consistent with the E-Business Program or a comparable successor program such Participant Information that the Participant has provided to ATA.
 - iii. Subject to the licenses granted in this Agreement, Participant Information shall not be used for activities or purposes to which this Agreement does not apply without the express prior permission of the Participant that provided the Participant Information.
 - b. Patent license. For purposes consistent with the E-Business Program, the Participant grants, and shall cause its Affiliates to grant, to ATA a limited, non-exclusive, irrevocable, non-transferable, royalty-free, worldwide license under the Participant’s and its Affiliates’ Essential Patents to make, have made, use, import, offer to sell, and otherwise distribute and dispose of Compliant Portions, with the right to grant sublicenses with an equivalent scope on a royalty-free basis.
 - i. “Essential Patent” defined. An “Essential Patent” is a claim of a patent or patent application, throughout the world, that is now or hereafter owned or licensable by the Participant or its Affiliates and is necessarily infringed by the implementation of a Compliant Portion provided that a claim is necessarily infringed only when it is not technically feasible to implement such Compliant Portion without infringing such claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Necessary Claims do not include any claims (A) other than those set forth above even if contained in the same patent or patent application as an Essential Patent claim; (B) that are directed to any enabling technology that may be necessary to implement such Compliant Portion but are not themselves specified with particularity in the relevant ATA specification (examples of such technologies include, without limitation, semiconductor manufacturing technology, compiler technology, object-oriented technology, and basic operating system technology); (C) that are infringed only by the implementation or use of published non-ATA specifications, or portion(s) thereof, that are referenced by the ATA specification but are not expressly set forth therein; (D) that are directed at implementation examples or optional features included in such Contribution; or (E) that, if licensed, would require a payment of royalties by the licensor to unaffiliated third parties.

- ii. “Compliant Portion” defined. A “Compliant Portion” is that portion of a product that implements and is compliant with the mandatory portions of the relevant ATA specification as applicable to such portions, excluding any additional elements of such product as may be optional under or are not required for compliance with the relevant ATA specification.
- c. Patent disclosure. Upon providing Participant Information, the Participant’s Primary Contact shall disclose any claims of patents or published patent applications owned or licensable by the Participant or its Affiliates, or any third party, of which the Participant’s Primary Contact or other employee of Participant submitting such Participant Information has personal knowledge and that would be an Essential Patent if the Contribution were to be included in a final ATA specification. Promptly after receiving and reviewing a draft ATA specification that is being circulated for purposes of any approval process called for under ATA’s specification development procedures, the Participant’s Primary Contact shall disclose any claims of patents or published patent applications owned or licensable by the Participant or its Affiliates, or any third party, of which the Participant’s Primary Contact or other employee of Participant reviewing such draft has personal knowledge and that would be an Essential Patent if the draft were to become a final ATA specification. Nothing in this Section 6c shall impose a duty (i) for a Participant’s Primary Contact or employees to make any inquiry into the existence of patents or patent applications not personally known to them, or (ii) for Participant to undertake any review of its or its Affiliates’ patent portfolios.
- d. Ownership. The Participant agrees that any final specifications that are developed through the E-Business Program are ATA’s exclusive property. Irrespective of ATA’s ownership of the final specifications, Participant’s intellectual property rights in its Participant Information and patents are unaffected by this Agreement. Accordingly, Participant may use its Participant Information and patents as it determines in its sole discretion without the knowledge or consent of ATA and without payment or other compensation to ATA.
- e. Further assurances. The Participant agrees, promptly upon ATA’s reasonable request, to execute such specific licenses or instruments and take any action necessary to enable ATA to secure and perfect the rights licensed in this Agreement.
- f. Survival of licenses. The licenses that this section grants shall survive termination of this Agreement but shall not extend to any draft ATA specification that has not been finalized before termination.

7. PARTICIPANT’S REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

- A. CONTRIBUTIONS TO E-BUSINESS PROGRAM ACTIVITIES. THE PARTICIPANT AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT KNOWINGLY, DIRECTLY OR THROUGH ITS DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE, PROVIDE TO ATA ANY PARTICIPANT INFORMATION THAT THE PARTICIPANT DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO LICENSE TO ATA UNDER SECTION 6.a.ii.
- B. WARRANTY EXCLUSION.
 - I. THE PARTICIPANT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY ATA SPECIFICATION AND ALL DATA ELEMENTS, SPECIFICATIONS, CONCEPTS, PROTOCOL COMPONENTS, AND OTHER INFORMATION AND OTHER MATERIAL PROVIDED IN, AS PART OF, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMULGATION OF AN ATA SPECIFICATION AND ALL LICENSES HEREUNDER ARE PROVIDED “AS IS” WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE REGARDING ANY SUBJECT MATTER OF THE SPECIFICATION.

- II. THE PARTICIPANT EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE, AND THOSE ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING OR USAGE OF TRADE.
- III. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, NO PARTICIPANT OR ATA WARRANTS THAT ANY ATA SPECIFICATION OR ANY DATA ELEMENTS, SPECIFICATIONS, CONCEPTS, PROTOCOL COMPONENTS, OR OTHER INFORMATION OR MATERIAL PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMULGATION OF AN ATA SPECIFICATION SHALL BE FREE FROM ERRORS OR THAT USE OR APPLICATION OF THE SPECIFICATION SHALL BE UNINTERRUPTED.

- C. LIABILITY LIMITATIONS. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT ALLOWED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, OTHER THAN WITH RESPECT TO ANY INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATION ARISING UNDER SECTION 7.D, NO PARTICIPANT SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE TO ATA OR OTHER PARTICIPANTS OR THEIR AFFILIATES WITH RESPECT TO ANY SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY CONTRACT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHER THEORY: (I) FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF PROFITS OR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, EVEN IF A PARTY HAS BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES; OR (II) ANY AMOUNT OF DAMAGES UNDER ANY CAUSE OF ACTION IN EXCESS OF THE ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP FEES PAID UNDER THIS AGREEMENT BY THE PARTICIPANT FOR THE 12 MONTH PERIOD BEFORE THE DATE ON WHICH THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH CAUSE OF ACTION OCCURRED. PARTICIPANT HEREBY EXPRESSLY ACCEPTS THE LIMITATION OF LIABILITY TO IT OF OTHER PARTICIPANTS AND THEIR AFFILIATES TO THE EXTENT THAT OTHER PARTICIPANTS NOW OR IN THE FUTURE SIGN VERSIONS OF THE ATA E-BUSINESS PROGRAM PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT IN SUBSTANTIALLY THE FORM OF THIS AGREEMENT AND INCLUDING LANGUAGE LIMITING LIABILITY BETWEEN PARTICIPANTS THAT IS IDENTICAL TO THE LANGUAGE OF THIS SECTION 7.C. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS, EXCLUSIONS, AND DISCLAIMERS SHALL APPLY TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EVEN IF ANY REMEDY FAILS ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.
- D. INDEMNIFICATION. THE PARTICIPANT AGREES TO INDEMNIFY ATA AND PAY THE AMOUNT OF ANY FINAL JUDGMENT AGAINST ATA (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY AWARD OF COSTS OR ATTORNEYS' FEES) ATTRIBUTABLE TO ANY BREACH OF SECTION 7.A OF THIS AGREEMENT BY THE PARTICIPANT OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES.

8. DEFINITIONS

- a. Solely for purposes of determining Participant status and for the payment of membership fees, the term "Affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, any other entity which, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by, or is under common control with, such entity. Any dispute concerning the existence of an Affiliate relationship between a Participant and any other entity shall be determined by ATA and such determination shall be conclusive and binding on all parties.
